

Island Classic 2018 Report

The Island Classic is played over three days each year usually late in August. The first round is a Medley Single Stableford giving visitors a chance to play on our course. The main event is played over 36 holes on Saturday and Sunday as a Men's and Women's Single Stableford. The weekend sponsor was Midcoast Trucks at Macksville while Thursdays event was sponsored by Riverside Rest B&B from Foreshore Close Nambucca Heads.

Overall winner over the weekend for the women was Jill Rowland from Nelson Bay club with a total score of 67 points. Runner up was Kerrie Leary from Oxley Golf Club in Queensland with 66 points. Scratch winner for the event was Robyn Callaghan also from Oxley with 42 from Glenys Thompson of Nambucca Island Golf Club runner up with 38 points. A field of 146 played on Saturday and 113 on Sunday .

Men's overall winner was Phillip Woodgate from Burleigh Golf club with a score of 78 points from Shane Anderson on 72 points. Winning the scratch was Timothy Murray from Armidale club with 66 points to get the prize from Michael Coutman in a countback.

Saturday's event for the ladies was won by Jill Crocker from Coolangatta with a 38 point round. Jenny Thorne was placed second with 32 points while Kay McGoldrick was on 32 points also. Ball rundown for the day went to 27. Pins for the round went to Jill Rowland, Jo-Ann Stinson (Taree) and Colleen French from Shortland Waters.

Sundays round was won by Linda Fuller with 32 points next was Adrienne Smith 31 points with Deidre Byrne on 30 points. Ball run down went to 29 just the one to be collected by Robyn Jones. Pins for the day went to Kerrie Leary, Rhonda Rowe, Jenny Thorne and Glenys Thompson.

Men's competition on Saturday was won by Les Mohr with a round of 39 points. Kel McGoldrick was next with 36 points with David Flannigan from Burleigh on 35 points. Ball run down went to 31 points and Jason O'Hara (Armidale), Ian Vidler and Steve Cumming to collect. Pins for the round were taken out by Michael Coutman, Jack Rowland, Trevor Hopkins, Brian May (Coffs), John Whitwam (Coffs), Aaron O'Brien (Armidale) with Mark McLaren picking up a healthy money shot.

Sunday Peter Moxon found form to win with 37 points from Dennis Ashton 36 points and Kel McGoldrick 34 points, ball rundown went to 28 with just 2 players to claim and they are John Rowland and Craig Francis (Merewether). Pins for the round went to Don Atkinson, David Flannigan, Trevor Murray (Uralla), Rod Robertson, Brian May, Drew Glasson, Michael Coutman and Kevin Mulhall took out the money shot

Raffle winners were Susan Funnell taking the major prize, Tono took second, Trevor Hopkins the detail car wash from Jims Car Detailing. Andrew MacKinnon and Kel McGoldrick were winners in the 100 club on Sunday.

On Thursday Drew Glasson took out A grade with 35 points with Darren Key runner up with 33 points. In B grade Peter Miller put together 39 point to win from Denys Tobin 35 points. Coming out on top in C grade was Gary Beggs having 38 points and Kel McGoldrick was next with 36 points. Ball rundown went to 29 with just the one going to Graeme Filippe from Tocumwal. Pins for the round went to Peter Miller, Stu Johnston and Peter Delaney took out the money shot . In the ladies Deidre Byrne was the winner with 38 points from Marry Rees 33 points and Linne Street 32 points. Ball rundown for the girls went to 27 with Rhonda Rowe the only one to pick up with 27 points. Pins went to Henny Oldenhove and Linne Street.