

Golf Report 25th March 2019

Saturday's golf attracted 105 players in a Medley Single Stableford that was sponsored by Drew Walker Plumbing . The field included 17 visitors. Taking the honour in A grade was Graham Weary (9) with 39 points just ahead of Glen Crow (12) a round of 37 points. Making the best of some good form Steve Frost (15) won B grade with a round of 39 from Phillip Woodgate (Burleigh Heads) (15) 38 points. Playing his best golf since becoming a full Member Tommy Robbins (31) will bring his handicap down after a round of 40 points to win C grade. Runner up in the grade was Scott Burley (21) with 38 points. Other good rounds came from Andrew MacKinnon, Mark McLaren and Peter Moxon all with 37 points. On 36 points we had Gary Beggs, John Heagney, Mark McFaul and Colin Dunne.

Pins for the round went to Ronald Cook at the second Eco Mist sponsored hole, Peter Farrell won the 5th Newsagents hole as well as the 13th Pizza This Pizza That hole. Dave Rosser took the 7th and Stephen Carr won the 8th Subway hole, Dennis Ashton won Stu's Ball at 15 and Jason Belt took out a healthy Pro Pin at 18th. Balls in the rundown went to 32 and to collect with this number will be Rhys Porter (Armidale), Stephen Carr, Dale Murray (Port Macquarie) and Greg McCoy.

Last Thursday 80 players took to the course in a Medley Single Stableford playing in two divisions. Coming out on top in division 1 we had Phillip Woodgate playing off 16 h/c 36 points from Ken Marriott (15) in a countback

Paul Miller (Forster- Tuncurry) with a 24 h/c won division 2 with 35 points, from Peter Dawe (25) 34 points. Ball rundown went to 30 with 8 players to collect including Stephen Toyne, Don Fenton, Paul MacElhinney, Joe Street, Urpo Ylinen, Andrew MacKinnon, Rod Robertson and Don Wills.

Nearest the pins went to Hans Jansen, Stu Johnston, Les Mohr, Neil Duffus and Paul Habgood , with Andrew Bagust taking out the Pro Pin.

The frequent afternoon storms we have been experiencing has the course in top condition. This Saturday we are holding a 2 Person Ambrose so please select a playing partner and join us for the round .

Kerry McCoy