

Golf Report 29th April

Our thought this week are with the Buxton Family after the loss of Graham last week. Graham was involved on the committee for a period of 10 years after being co-opted back in 1994. He took on the task of treasurer in 1996 and continued in this roll until the end of financial year 2005/2006. His presence will be missed by all who knew him.

Saturday a field of 91 golfers played a Medley Single Stableford in 3 grades with the A grade win going to Bruce Berry playing off a h/c of 3, 35 points. Runner up in A grade was Steve Cumming, h/c 11 a round of 34.

Winner in B grade had it all to himself with very poor scores in that grade. Rob Coneybeare h/c 15 had a score of 34 from the runner up in the grade Peter Bush with 32 playing off 18 h/c.

In C grade Pat Ellis broke through playing off 36 with a 40 point round which will see Pat come down in handicap. Gary Roach ran in next with a 39 points round playing off 24 h/c.

Ball rundown was to 29 with just the one to Garry Tierney to collect.

Pins for the day went to Bruce Berry at the Ecomist 2nd hole, Peter Bush at the 5th, Geoff McCann the 7th, Gary Roach won the 8th and the 13th pizza hole, Daniel Tinson, a visitor from Gonnawarra, took the 15th and John Hopkins took out the pro pin at 18.
